LILIUMS

are our specialty and the demand for these bulbs is greater each year as flower lovers everywhere become better acquainted with these true "Aristocrats of The Garden."

Lilies are easy to grow in any average garden soil and will give an exceedingly showy display of beautiful flowers. We cannot tell what varieties are best suited to your conditions but a trial planting of a few bulbs or one of the collections found in the back of this folder will show which are best adapted.

LIST OF VARIETIES:

L. Amabilis. A rare species from Korea. The recurving flowers are grenadin red, spotted with black and are quite large. A fine rock garden variety. June flowering. 30c each, $3.00 per dozen.

L. Auratum Platyphyllum. One of the best of the Auratum family. The flowers are large, white with a central gold band and numerous yellow spots. Height 4-6 ft. With large fragrant flowers eight to twelve inches across. August. 50c each, $5.00 per dozen.

L. AURATUM PLATYPHYLLUM

L. Callosum. Light graceful habit. Flowers varying strawberry pink to red, recurving starlike, carried on stems one to three feet in height. July blooming. 25c each, $2.50 per dozen.

L. Canadense. The Canadian Meadow lily. Graceful, nodding, bell shaped flowers, varying yellow to red, minutely spotted with deep brown. 25c each, $2.50 per dozen.

L. Candidum. The well-known Madonna Lily. This lily will always be a favorite when planted with Delphiniums for the late June gardens. Bulbs should be planted only in late August and early September, later planting should not be attempted. Large bulbs 25c each, $2.50 per dozen.

CANDIDUM

L. Cornuum. A rare and beautiful species with long slender grass-like foliage similar to L. Tenuifolium. Flowers are lilac pink and sweet-scented. 40c each, $4.00 per dozen.

L. Concolor. Flowers bright red flecked with black at base of petals carried upright on slender stems. Fine for the rock garden. June and July. 25c each, $2.50 per dozen.

L. Davurium. A handsome early flowering lily. Flowers orange-red spotted black, upright and rather cup-shaped. 30c each, $3.00 per dozen.

- L. Elegans. A dwarf variety with upright orange flowers. Good for rock gardens. June and July. 25c each, $2.50 per dozen.
- L. Elegans Mahony. A new variety. Intense rich maroon, suffused mahogany. 30c each, $3.00 per doz.
- L. Elegans Prince of Orange. A very dwarf form of Elegans. 30c each, $2.50 per dozen.
- L. Hansoni. A choice species bearing yellow flowers with thick petals. A very hardy and easily grown variety for either full sunshine or partial shade. June. 40c each, $4.00 per dozen.
- L. Henryi. The golden Speciosum. Flower rich orange yellow. A tall vigorous grower bearing often 10 to 20 large flowers on stalks 4-6 ft. tall. Flowers in August. Medium sized flowering bulbs 25c each, $2.50 per dozen. Large size, 40c each, $4.00 per dozen. A few extra large bulbs at 60c each, $6.00 per dozen.
- L. Philippinense Formosanum. A new variety fast becoming popular. Long tubular flowers, white with green throat inside, outside reddish brown. Delightfully fragrant. A late bloomer coming into blossom in September, so should be given a warm sunny situation. 35c each, $3.50 per dozen.
- L. Regale. The most popular of all varieties. Flowers tubular, white shaded brown outside, inside facing white with sulphur yellow throat. Early July. Flowering size, 15c each, $1.50 per dozen. Medium size, 25c each, $2.50 per dozen. Large size, 40c each, $4.00 per dozen.
- L. Sargentiae. A rare lily from China. Large funnel shaped flowers creamy-white face with yellow throat, outside reddish-brown. One of the finest varieties flowering about two weeks later than Regale. July-August. 75c each, $8.00 per dozen.
- L. Sulphureum. A rare and beautiful species from Burma. The flowers are funnel shaped, sulphur yellow inside, reddish-orange outside. A late blooming variety flowering in September. $1.00 each, $11.00 per dozen.
- L. Tenuifolium. The coral lily, flowers deep scarlet grass-like foliage. A fine variety for the rock garden. Large bulbs, 20c each, $2.00 per dozen.
- L. Tenuifolium Golden Gleam. Identical with L. Tenuifolium except that it has flowers of a rich apricot shade. June blooming. 25c each, $2.50 per dozen.

- L. Tigrinum Splendens. The well known Tiger Lily. A hardy and vigorous grower with orange-red flowers spotted black. 15c each, $1.50 per dozen.
- L. Umbellatum Golden Fleece. A fine form with large clear, golden yellow flowers held upright on strong stems. Early July. $1.00 each, $10.00 per dozen.
- L. Umbellatum Splendidum. Flower rich vermillion with the outside shaded orange-green. One of the finest varieties. July. 60c each, $6.00 per dozen.
- L. Umb. Vermillion Brilliant. Large heads of deep blood-red flowers with broad petals. July. 50c each. $5.00 per dozen.
- L. Umbellatum Apricot. Flowers rich apricot shade. A strong grower blooming in July. 50c each. $5.00 per dozen.
- L. Umb. Prince of Wales. The finest early yellow variety. Very large flowers in early July. $1.00 each, $10.00 per dozen.
- L. Willmottiae. A very vigorous and hardy variety, growing when established to a height of 6 feet, bearing as many as 30 flowers to the stem, often needs staking. Flowers reddish-brown, recurving. 50c each, $5.00 per dozen.

All prices in this folder are for cash with order and may be sent either by check or money order. If the customer will include 10% of the value of the order to cover postage we will include bulbs (our selection) to cover twice the amount of postage.

Always six bulbs at the dozen rate, less than six bulbs of a variety at the single rate.

We use all possible care in the growing and selection of bulbs for shipment, also in keeping them true to name and cannot be responsible for the failure of any bulbs, as much depends on planting conditions, care, etc. Cultural directions will be sent with each order and if carefully followed your plantings should be successful.
